Dr. Fiona Li is a board-certified adult psychiatrist who also brings specialized expertise in child and adolescent psychiatry. With 26 years of dedicated experience in the mental health field, they offer a deep, compassionate understanding of development and mental wellness across the entire lifespan.

Throughout their career, Dr. Li has committed to providing evidence-based, personalized care that helps individuals navigate life's complexities.

Specializations: Adult Psychiatry, Child & Adolescent Psychiatry

Experience: 26 Years in Mental Health Care

Current Status: Currently accepting new adult patients.

